

WHITE WOMEN OF JUNEAU TO BE EMPLOYED

Work Began Yesterday on Cannery on Willoughby for New Juneau Industry.

SALMON TO BE PACKED

Three Gas Boats Arrive; Will Be Used in Connection With the Cannery Pack.

Work on the construction of the cannery buildings on Willoughby avenue was started yesterday morning and today the frame work for the main building is well along towards completion. W. A. Estus and J. T. Hansen, who operate a cannery at Bangor, Washington, arrived yesterday morning at an early hour from the south with three gas boats which will be used as cannery tenders. They brought seven of their summer crew with them and work started at once on the erection of the buildings.

Mr. Estus said yesterday that the work will be rushed until the completion of the plant and it is expected to have it in shape to pack fish by the first of July. It is planned to use a number of women in the cannery doing the greater part of the light work, and white women will be employed if they can possibly be hired.

The main cannery building will be 24 by 100 feet with a warehouse 40 by 100 feet in size. The plant is being constructed to pack about 25,000 cases of salmon during the season. It is planned to deal exclusively with salmon this summer, although it is planned to return early next spring and pack clams and other sea foods.

The party made the trip north in three gas boats, Diana, Kitty W. and Noisy Bill.

Mrs. Estus and daughter accompanied Mr. Estus and will make their home in Juneau during the summer.

COURT DECISION WATERFRONT CASE BE GIVEN MONDAY

Judge R. W. Jennings Said in Answer to Question That He Will Then Render It.

On Monday morning Judge R. W. Jennings will announce his decision in the city waterfront case, according to a statement made this morning in reply to a question. The case is of considerable interest as on it hinges the question of a site for the fish floats. If favorable to the Council, they will be able to live up to their agreement with the owners of the Mann and James dock sites the city will secure these properties under lease and will be able to improve them to furnish floats and necessary houses for the fishing fleet making headquarters in Juneau.

GREAT DOINGS FOR RED CROSS BEING PLANNED

Elks Are Taking a hand and Have Arranged Some Spectacular Stunts for Cause.

BASEBALL GAME SUNDAY

Children and Everyone Are Doing Their Bit to Make the Drive a Great Success.

Kitney Dance, Auction, Musical numbers, Vaudeville Turns, Good eats—in fact everything that goes to make one of the best evenings that was ever put on at the Elks' hall, will be staged Monday night and all for the price of 25 cents admission.

The Elks want every one on the channel to attend this one grand and monster pageant as there will be something doing every minute. The oldest grouch in the town will find something there to amuse him and will go home with a better view of life and really believing that he is in his kid days again.

In the auction sale, part of the entertainment, there is going to be some time as every thing is useful and can be carried home with you with the exception of the half ton of coal that has been placed on the auction block.

The Elks state that they are going to start the Red Cross week with such a bang that it will take the rest of the workers a month to catch up with them. Dolly Gray and Cash Cole are as busy as an armed painter, so much so in fact that Dolly has forgotten that he ever had a hat and showing his curly locks off to good advantage.

Just write Monday night on your cuff button and be there sharp at 8:30 so that you will not miss any of the program and leave the balance to the Elks.

The ferry company will run a late boat to the Island and Thane at any time to suit the crowd so everybody can enjoy one of the best evenings since your kid days "down on the farm."

Everything is going along smoothly for the big baseball game tomorrow on the Juneau grounds.

The school children are doing their little bit towards the cause by flooding the town this afternoon with tickets, everyone is buying so it is assured that there will be a steady stream of people to the Basin tomorrow.

The game will be called at sharp 3:30 by Gov. Riggs, who will pitch the first ball over the plate, and they do say that the Governor is a good player, having seen some service on the North Star League at Nenana not many moons ago.

Jack McBride the Juneau umpire will be there in armor plate and a voice that will scare the mountain goat from Mt. Juneau.

The Elks state that they will put something over Monday night that will be hard to beat but they will have to go some to beat the crowd that it is expected will go to the baseball game.

Bring along your girl and spend a good afternoon at the baseball grounds tomorrow, the weather is going to be the best, so the weather man has promised, and everyone is assured of a good time.
